

In the Claims:

1. A microstrip antenna comprising:
a first conductive ground plane;
a dielectric substrate disposed on the first ground plane;
a patch disposed on the dielectric substrate;
feed means for electrically feeding the patch; and a dielectric lens for encapsulating at least a portion of the patch to increase radiation gain at low angles.